News and Views: Endorsements for Roger from community leaders and elected officials.

September 10, 2013 (updated 9/23/13)

Dear Voter,

More Denver families and community members are learning about me and our campaign for great schools in every neighborhood. Parents want a high quality school in their neighborhood because it is a major part of building strong communities.

The support for my candidacy is growing daily. I am pleased to have the backing of many community leaders and parents. I am also pleased to be endorsed by current and former state and local elected officials with expertise in education. My endorsements include:

Dennis Gallagher, City Auditor
Senator Evie Hudak (Chair, Senate Education Committee)
Senator Andy Kerr (Member, Senate Education Committee)
Senator Nancy Todd (Member, Senate Education Committee)
Representative Cheryl Peniston (Vice chair, House Education Committee)
The Honorable Judy Solano (Former member of the House Education Committee)
Arturo Jimenez (Member, Denver School Board)
Jeanne Kaplan (Member, Denver School Board)
The Honorable Laura Lefkowitz (Former member, Denver School Board)
The Honorable JD MacFarlane, Former State Attorney General

In addition to these individuals, over 3,000 Denver classroom teachers are supporting me through the endorsement of the Denver Classroom Teachers Association, as are thousands of working men and women represented by the Denver Area Labor Federation. We are working together to provide our more than 80,000 students in the Denver Public Schools the best possible education to prepare them for their future and the 21st century. Together we are striving for excellence in all that we do.
